Subject:- Grant of Two Smaller adjoining Sites Nos.15 & 16 each - measuring 30'x45' in the new Layout in Survey No.35(Old No.38) in Vasanthanagar, Bangalore, in lieu of the petitioner's site in the same area acquired by the City Improvement Trust Board.

I am a poor Harijan (Adidravida) official with a long service of 30 years under Mysore Government living all along in Bangalore in rented houses under the tyrany of land lords. Even now I am living in a rented house No.3, in Vasanthanagar Main Road,Bangalore, paying a heavy rent of Rs.45/- p.m. I do not own a house or a site anywhere. It was with the greatest difficulty that I purchased six years ago a site measuring 55'x90' in Survey No.35/8 (Old No.38) in Vasanthanagar, Bangalore, for constructing a house for my own living paying then Rs.2,000/- excluding other expenses. I have not derived so far any benefit out of it. But to my sheer misfortune this my Site has been acquired by the City Improvement Trust Board and laid into several sites ready for sale now. I was also informed by the Board in Endorsement No.2289/52-53 dated 1st July 1952 that it is not possible to exclude this my Site from acquisition, as the same occupies parts of several sites to be formed by the Board.

Since I am a poor Harijan official, it is impossible for me to compete and purchase a site in the public auction nor am I financially able to purchase a bigger site. In this connection I beg also to submit that several Harijan Officers and officials have recently been granted by the Trust Board [redacted] new sites in Kumara Park New Extensions at upset rates even though they were fresh applicants for the same. But in my case, my own valuable site has been acquired for the formation of the Layout and as such my case deserves first preference and better considerations than those of others.
